Special thanks to Drew Foam Co. located on the Ponchatoula Highway in Hammond for props.

A. J. KRELLER's Playmaker's credits include "Anastasia", "You Can't Take It With You" and
 "Cabaret". A.J. was elected to the board of directors this year and continues to assist the group onstage and off.

LIZ LANCASTER is appearing with Playmaker's for the first time, but playing before an audience is nothing new for her. She was a member of a singing group which appeared throughout the area. Liz and some of her friends also appeared in a modern Christmas play presented at the Covington Presbyterian Church.
 Liz's most exciting engagement is the one she will star in before the altar on Feb. 29.

JOHN CARAMBAT, a newcomer to Playmaker's, is a native New Orleanian. John has backstage experience in sound and props and designed the set for "Hair" at the St. Bernard Civic Auditorium. Welcome!

JANICE LEVY is married to the director of the current production, Frank Levy, and is teaching at Regina Coeli Head Start. Janice hails from Hastings, Penn., and was graduated from St.
 Mary's Dominican College. She is appearing onstage for the first time.

EVELYN CHALARON has directed and acted in many of Playmaker's productions since its inception.
 She directed such plays as "Silent Night, Lonely Night", "Blythe Spirit" and co-directed "Cat on A Hot Tin Roof" and her roles include "Night Must Fall", "The Four Poster", "Light up the Sky" and "The Innocents".

TOM EDWARDS, owner of Edwards Insurance Agency, is another welcome addition to Playmaker's. Tom and his wife, Melanie, who teaches at Mandeville Elementary, are the parents of a 6-year-old daughter, Kristie. Golf and numerous civic activities fill Tom's busy schedule.

MARGARET STICPEWICH is a newcomer to Playmaker's. She and her family arrived in New Orleans in January from Australia, and found their way across the lake almost immediately. She spent several years in Africa where she worked with a Shakespeare group and an international theater group. More recently, in Melbourne she took part in a number of productions with a repertory theater.

ANN GAUTHIER was first introduced to Playmaker's audiences as Sister Woman in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof", which earned her an Alvin Award. Ann and her oldest daughter, Mimi, are active members of the group.

PETER KLEBBA appeared in last season's production of "Cabaret". He has attended Louisiana State University for the past two years and plans to complete his college studies in marketing at North Texas State in Denton. Peter is presently employed at the Beau Chene Golf and Racquet Club.

MIMI MINNIS is a newcomer to Playmaker's and Covington. She moved to this area from Mobile, Ala., where she appeared in school plays. Mimi is a student at St. Scholastica Academy and we are happy to welcome her tonight.

MIMI GAUTHIER is a junior at St. Scholastica Academy. She has sung, danced and acted in many of Playmaker's popular productions including, "Music Man", "No, No, Nanette", "Wizard of Oz", "Alice in Wonderland", "Cabaret" and "Charlie Brown". Mimi is also a member of the St. Paul's dance team, Golden Blue.

ARTHUR MIDDLETON is the current president of Playmaker's. He directed "The Boy Friend", "South Pacific", "The Sound of Music" and "No, No, Nanette". Arthur's acting roles include Pepe in the "Boy Friend", St. Moore in "What Price Glory" and Beverly Carlton in "The Man who Came to Dinner".
